Test Score Processing

Test scores may be submitted via a transcript, test score report, or a variety of other modes.

Scores are stored in SIS

SIS reads scores to determine if hold needs to be placed on record

Scores appear on transcript and degree audit for advising purposes

SIS reads scores as part of automated admissions process

Scores are viewed by authorized users on SIS

Evaluation of test scores

- Not acceptable

- Acceptable

Student may be required to enroll in non-college level courses in English, reading or math.

Acceptable

Student allowed to enroll in college level courses